

7/1/2023 Somehow Sorry signs with PDT Entertainment

6/24/2023 Somehow Sorry invited back to perform live at the LI Fun Fest Sam Ash Stage

4/30/2023 Concert Hall at the Long Island Music and Entertainment Hall of Fame

4/21/2022 Robert Jay joined Somehow Sorry as our Bassist and Soundman

4/9/2022 Paul Maugeri was unable to continue with our project due to personal reasons.

1/1/2022 Released Full Length Album "Same Great Taste" (On ALL streaming platforms)

2021 Released Three Covers (Norwegian Wood • Me and Bobby McGee • America)

3/12/2020 Played famed venue "My Father's Place."

12/10/2019 Somehow Sorry re-forms with all original members.

10/26/2009 Due to injury, Jim Bosko had to leave Somehow Sorry

9/5/2009 Headliner at the Jones Beach Bandshell

8/6/2009 Headliner at the Jones Beach Bandshell

7/8/2007 Somehow Sorry records and releases their "Fit to Be Tied" Album on the Guru Projects label.

2006 Somehow Sorry forms with Bass Guitarist Paul Maugeri and Jimmy Bosko

2006 Shits and Giggles formed with Bass Guitarist Chris Warren and Jimmy Bosko on Drums

Early Years

1997 D'Vine Ryte tours with Heavy Metal Band Warrant

1997 Opens for Missing Persons @Tommy Knockers

1996 Opens for Nino Betencourt @TommyKnockers

1996 D'Vine Ryte signs with Road Runner Records

1994-1996 "When" sells over 250,000 copies in the US

1994 Recorded the "When" Album

10/22/1992 John McCarthy and Lorraine Lisa met at an audition for a Hard Rock Band called D'Vine Ryte